

MARK 3:7-35

Translation © Abraham Kuruvilla, 2013

MARK 3

- 7 And Jesus withdrew to the sea with His disciples, and a great multitude from Galilee followed, and from Judea,
8 and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and beyond the Jordan, and around Tyre and Sidon—a great multitude, hearing all what He was doing, came to Him.

- 10 for He healed many, so that whoever had afflictions fell upon Him in order to touch Him.
11 And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw Him, were falling before Him and crying, saying, “You are the Son of God!”
12 And He was earnestly warning them so that they would not make Him known.
13 And He went up on the mountain and called up those He Himself wanted, and they came away to Him.
14 And He appointed Twelve, whom He also named apostles, so that they would be with Him, and so that He could send them to preach
15 and to have authority to cast out demons.

- 20 And He came in to the house, and the crowd came together again, so that they [Jesus and his disciples] were not even able to eat bread.
21 And when His family heard [of this], they went out to take Him, for they were saying, “He is out of His mind.”
22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem were saying, “He has Beelzebul,” and “By the ruler of the demons, He casts out demons.”
23 And summoning them, He was speaking to them in parables, “How is Satan able to cast out Satan?
24 And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom is not able to stand.
25 And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.
26 And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he is not able to stand, but he has [come to] an end.
27 But no one is able to enter into the house of the strong man to plunder his property unless he first binds the strong man, and then he will plunder his house.
28 Truly, I say to you that all sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they may blaspheme;
29 but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit does not have forgiveness eternally, but is guilty of an eternal sin,”
30 because they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”

3. Even More Outsiders

- 31 And His mother and His brothers came and, standing outside, they sent for Him and called Him.
- 32 And a crowd was sitting around Him, and they said to Him, “Behold, your mother and your brothers are seeking you outside.”
- 33 And answering them, He said, “Who are My mother and My brothers?”
- 34 And looking around at those sitting around Him in a circle, He said, “Behold My mother and My brothers.
- 35 For whoever does the will of God, he is My brother and sister and mother.”
